Wednesday, June 5, 12:00 - 13:30

Location: Room A104, Buchanan Building

Session Organizer: Abdie Kazemipur (CSA), Yoko Yoshida (CPS), Sarah Fortin (CRDCN)

The availability of the Master Files of Statistics Canada micro-data through RDCs has provided Canadian researchers with a great tool and rich resources to address new research questions difficult to address using Public Use versions of those data (PUMF). This potential is now further expanded with the addition of administrative data to the RDCs and the possibility of linking the administrative and Statistic Canada's survey data. The presentations in this panel provide an update on the available data, the new potentials, and some recent products.
